

This is my 19th year going and I have had an extremely enriching career. I started in personal care products. At that time the business was tiny and I was handling the hair category.